Declaration of Independence FILL IN THE BLANKS

Block Date When in the course of	name
When in the course of	Block people to dissolve the	Date people to dissolve the people to dissolve the	When in the co	ourse of		it basamas	forono and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate andstation to whice Laws of Nature and of Laws of Nature and of them to separation. We hold these We hold these	to	the opinions of man	kind requires that they sl	hould declare the	causes which impel
they are endowed by theirwith certain, that among these are,, and theof happiness. The secure these, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just from the of the That when-ever form of government become destructive of these ends, it is the of the alter or to it, and institute new, governments long established should not be for and and to suffer, while evils and sufferable, that to themselves by the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of and usurpations, pursuing the same object evinces a des reduce them under absolute, it is their, it is their, for their future, to throw off such, and to provide new for their future.	them to separation	ı .
they are endowed by theirwith certain, that among these are,, and theof happiness. The secure these, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just from the of the That when-ever form of government become destructive of these ends, it is the of the alter or to it, and institute new, governments long established should not be for and and to suffer, while evils and sufferable, that to themselves by the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of and usurpations, pursuing the same object evinces a des reduce them under absolute, it is their, it is their, for their future, to throw off such, and to provide new for their future.
among these are	We hold these	eto be se	elf-evident, thatı	men are created ₋	, that secure these, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just from the of the That when-ever form of government become destructive of these ends, it is the of the alter or to it, and institute new, governments long established should not be for and causes; and accordingly all hath shown, that mankind are m to suffer, while evils and sufferable, that to themselves by the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of and usurpations, pursuing the same object evinces a des reduce them under absolute, it is their, it is their, to throw off such, and to provide new for their future.	they are endowed I	by theirw	ith certain		, that from theof the That when-ever form of government become destructive of these ends, it is the of the alter or to it, and institute new, governments long established should not be for and to suffer, while evils and sufferable, that to themselves by the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of and usurpations, pursuing the same object evinces a des reduce them under absolute, it is their, it is their, to throw off such, and to provide new for their futurents.	among these are _	,,	, and the	0	of happiness. That to form of government become destructive of these ends, it is the of the alter or to it, and institute new, governments long established should not be for and causes; and accordingly all hath shown, that mankind are m to suffer, while evils and sufferable, that to themselves by the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of and usurpations, pursuing the same object evinces a des reduce them under absolute, it is their, it is their, to throw off such, and to provide new for their futur	secure these	, Governments a	are instituted among Me	n, deriving their j	ust
form of government become destructive of these ends, it is the of the alter or to it, and institute new, governments long established should not be for and causes; and accordingly all hath shown, that mankind are m to suffer, while evils and sufferable, that to themselves by the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of and usurpations, pursuing the same object evinces a des reduce them under absolute, it is their, it is their, to throw off such, and to provide new for their futur		from the	of the	1	hat when- ever any alter or toit, and institute new, governments long established should not beforandhath shown, that mankind are mto suffer, while evils and sufferable, that tothemselves bythe forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train ofthe same object evinces a des reduce them under absolute, it is their, it is their, to throw off such, and to provide new for their futur governments long established should not beforand causes; and accordingly allhath shown, that mankind are mto suffer, while evils and sufferable, that tothemselves bythe forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train ofand usurpations, pursuingthe same object evinces a des reduce them under absolute, it is their, it is their, to throw off such, and to provide new for their future.
to suffer, while evils and sufferable, that tothemselves bythe forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of and usurpations, pursuing the same object evinces a des reduce them under absolute, it is their, it is their, to throw off such, and to provide new for their future.	government	s long established sho	ould not be	for	and
to suffer, while evils and sufferable, that tothemselves bythe forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of and usurpations, pursuing the same object evinces a des reduce them under absolute, it is their, it is their, to throw off such, and to provide new for their future.	ca	uses; and accordingly	allh	ath shown, that i	mankind are more the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of and usurpations, pursuing the same object evinces a des reduce them under absolute, it is their, it is their, to throw off such, and to provide new for their future.
and usurpations, pursuing the same object evinces a des reduce them under absolute, it is their, it is their, to throw off such, and to provide new for their future.					-
,to throw off such, and to provide new for their futur				_
,to throw off such, and to provide new for their futur	reduce them under	absolute	, it is their	, it is th	ıeir
			•		